Finding Privately Owned Cabins

In addition to national and state parks, many private cabins are available in Maryland and Virginia. We've examined numerous sources to help you find a match; here are some of the better ones:

■ Cabins.com

865-573-3172, www.cabins.com

Lists more than three dozen cabins in Virginia and many nationally, but none in Maryland.

■ CampNet America

www.campnetamerica.com

Extensive camping info source includes listings of log cabins, parks and links to other camping sites.

■ Great Outdoors Recreation Pages

www.gorp.com

In-depth travel site that focuses on the great outdoors. Browse by destination, not via a general cabin search, or you'll be lost in the woods.

■ Mountain Lodging Vacation Rentals

800-418-1483, www.mountain-lodging.com

Listings include cabins, chalets, cottages and bungalows in the Blue Ridge Mountains, Appalachian Mountains, Shenandoah River Valley and more. Areas comprise 14 states, with Virginia among them.

■ National Association of RV Parks and Campgrounds

www.gocampingamerica.com

Though mostly about RV camping, it also lists cabins.

■ Potomac Appalachian Trail Club

703-242-0693, www.patc.net

Maintains 28 cabins along the Appalachian Trail. Six in Shenandoah National Park are available to the public and nine to members only; three in Maryland are available to the public. Reservations accepted one month in advance from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., Monday-Thursday, and noon to 2 p.m., Thursdays and Fridays. Rates range from $10-$20 weekdays, $15-$40 weekends and holidays.

■ Wildernet

www.wildernet.com

Detailed info about all U.S. state parks that's often more helpful than the state parks' official Web sites. Beware of the pop-up ads.
